The lessons that shape a life are not always taught in homeroom.

An age-aware school experience about courage, kindness, belonging, and what to do when life changes the assignment.

Created for elementary, middle, and high school assemblies and student leadership programs.

STUDENT EXPERIENCE

Lessons They Don't Teach in Homeroom

Friendship. Difference. Adaptability. The courage to write your own story.

Kevin's life changed during his junior year of high school. With honest storytelling, humor, interaction, and echolocation, he makes courage and resilience real instead of theoretical.

"Difference can become an advantage."

AUDIENCES WALK AWAY READY TO

- Choose kindness and value differences.
- Become the person who says hello.
- Adapt when life changes the plan.
- Build courage, empathy, and friendship.

BRING PERSPECTIVE TO THE MOMENTS THAT MATTER MOST.

A SCHOOL EXPERIENCE STUDENTS WILL REMEMBER

Meet students inside the life they are living now.

Kevin Lowe is an inspirational keynote speaker, Blind Visionary, and creator of The 1% Principle. He became completely blind during his junior year of high school - the same season students are deciding who they are and where they belong. Kevin combines warmth, humor, audience interaction, and echolocation to make courage tangible at every age.

WHAT AUDIENCES SAY

“Some students said it was the most meaningful presentation they had ever heard - especially the echolocation demonstration.

- CAROL FURCHES

“Kevin's energy is real, raw, and contagious. He knows how to engage an audience.

- ERIK ALLEN, FOUNDER

WHAT PLANNERS CAN EXPECT

- Responsive communication
- Pre-event alignment
- A keynote tailored to the room
